Student working under NGO Report - (2019-20)

Pragnya College of Management and Computer Studies has some of the students who work under the NGO for the welfare of the society. Our students perform the different Social Act.

Some of the students helped the needy children by offering them snacks as well as making them smile by playing with them. One of the boy at F.C.Road was selling bhel, our group of students helped them by educating him as well as teaching him the moral values.

They also helped the people on roadside by offering them some foods, fruits.
